Bright, Fun and Art Inspired

IHGF Delhi Fair (Autumn)

14-18 October 2014, New Delhi

Enigmatic designs and fine detailing in bright, fun and art-inspired jewellery and accessories with new looks, usher in geometric shapes, contrasting materials and effects from manufacturers in India. The array has themes like purely contemporary, luxury, mystical, festive, traditional Indian, occasion wear, bohemian and chic. Across the spectrum are ready to use components as well.

The array is all encompassing with beaded jewellery in cheerful colourful combinations, elegant textile based neckwear, metal mesh bracelets, intriguingly shaped stone embedded finger rings, threaded bangles, semi-precious stones shaped into drops and danglers, folk & tribal reproductions inspired by the Bastar, Dhokra, Mizo and Naga art forms, elegant pearl sets and standalone pieces, lustrous silver artfully combined with stones, delicately set lac or kundanware with shimmering stones, carved mother of pearl, rustic fare in bamboo, jute and wood, and much more. Some of the wearable arts include resin injection moulded jewellery, brass and resin bangles, feather on metal chain jewellery, combination pendants, made to order hand painted wooden accessories to suit any ensemble, anklets and head accessories, textile and thread necklaces with beadwork, adornments using mix of wood and horn or simply horn that is decorated with tiny stones or just shaped to give a more stylized look. Teen jewellery shapes up as bracelets, anklets, earrings and neckwear that can be teamed with gift packaging and peppy organizers.
